At a meeting of the school board Monday, March 14th, it was ordered that the school election April 5th, 1910, be held in the south room, ground floor, of the Academy of Music.

Our weather the past few weeks has been somewhat varied. One day the air is balmy and spring like, and the next brings winter's chilling blast. In fact, 'tis very much like March.

Post-office inspectors have been visiting the valley with unusual regularity the past two months. and one spent nearly all of last week here. It is intimated that something "may drap" soon.

The Murdock-Crumb surveyors will "break-camp" at the rifle range in a couple of weeks. Then they will come to town and do about ten days' work on town lots and their job will be finished.

The Ironton public schools were in session all day Saturday to make up a day lost last fall. The boys and girls "kicked" considerably, and we don't blame them. Five days in a week are enough. If there is any time to be made up let it be done next spring when the term is out.

Wm. Trauernicht last week shipped a car load of his house-hold goods and other belongings from Bismarck to Ironton. He is arranging his collection of curios n his tailor shop in the Academy of Music and will be domiciled at the home of his son. Mr. T. says he already begins to feel very much at home in Ironton.

The day is close at hand when Poplar Bluff will be the division headquarters on the Missouri di-vision of the Iron Mountain system, for already arrangements for the removal of the headquarters from De Soto to Poplar Bluff are being made. The exact date for this move can not be set but it will be as soon as the new station s completed, which in all likelihood will be about April 1st.—Popar Bluff Republican.

Of course, it is the same old thing, over again. The peaches are all killed! They always are killed, you know, about this time of year, or, maybe a little earlier or a little bit later. At least they are always so reported by some. But anyhow F. A. Glawe brought up to town Saturday some branch. es of peach trees on which were blooms. These he cut from his orchard since the 16 below zero weather and put them indoors where they flowered .- Doniphan Prospect-News.

Entered into rest, March 7th, 1910, at St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Louisa Thome, relict of the late D. J. Vance has sold the farm John Thome, aged 72 years and 27 days. She has a son, Gregor, living in this county. The remains were brought from St. Louis to Middlebrook on the 10th, and interred in the Catholic cemetery at that place, Rev. John F. Adrian conducting the services. The deceased was a devout woman, a faithful wife and mother. Her surviving relatives have the sympathy of all who know them.

Many school districts in Iron

Many school districts in Iron do not have an eight county months' school.

There is no reason why you should not have it. The board of directors and district clerks should see that the notices of the annual school meeting provide for the increase of revenue so as to give the voters a chance to decide whether they want the state aid or not.

You certainly are more interested in the education of your boys and girls than any one else; then why not get this money, secure the best teacher obtainable and educate your boys and girls at your home Very Respectfully, B. P. BURNHAM, school?
